

Catholic Schools Week

Join us as we celebrate how we celebrate our

Unity in Faith and Community!

January 26th – January 31st is Catholic Schools Week. Listed below are the activities that will take place at St. Cletus School to celebrate how we Walk Together in Faith & Love!

Catholic Schools Week Activities:

Sunday, January 26th	Mass: 10:30 AM & Open House: 11:30 AM - 2:30 PM Please join us for Mass followed by an open house at the school for current and prospective families. St. Cletus students should attend with their families and wear their school uniforms.
Monday, January 27th	Favorite plaid shirt uniform! Wear your favorite plaid with your uniform – just remember to be appropriate. Have a Math competition in Class - challenge each other!
Tuesday, January 28th	Our School is SOUPER!! Regular Dress today – we have 8am Mass. We will say a special blessing for Teachers at the Mass! Bring a soup can to donate to the food pantry. Write a letter as to why we strongly agree that “God Is Present in My Life” post these in the hall!
Wednesday, January 29th	Teacher Appreciation Day Teachers can dress down and will enjoy lunch from the FSA! Students can wear spirit wear!
Thursday, January 30th	Student Appreciation Day: Books, Board Games & Buddies! Teachers will find a time during the day to share some special time with their buddies. Full Dress Down - Dress comfortably, according to the out of uniform code, to have some fun on the floor. No homework day! Freeze pops for students!
Friday, January 31st	Red & White Day! Red and White Game We’ve got spirit, yes we do, we’ve got spirit how ‘bout YOU!? Students in grades 1-8, wear your assigned red or white color along with gym shoes for the red and white volleyball games, which take place throughout the school day – See the schedule from Mrs O’Connell. Spirit wear for everyone else! Early childhood students come out and cheer on your buddies!

